

Strengthen Cultural Humility and Dismantle Implicit Bias in Health Care/Social Services

JOIN THE NO-COST VIRTUAL TRAINING AND EARN 1.50 CME/CE CREDITS!¹

Studies have shown implicit bias as a potential contributor to inequalities in marginalized and minority communities. This interactive and self-reflective training will focus on increasing cultural competence, sensitivity, and humility. The session is one and a half hours.

Topics discussed

How to define cultural humility, implicit vs. clear bias.

- How to find and assess personal implicit biases (subtle, unconscious, assumptions).
- How to use techniques to engage with people from marginalized and minority communities with cultural humility and awareness.
- How to develop culturally aware and patient-centered communication skills.

Presented by

- Dr. Sayida Peprah-Wilson, founder and executive director, Diversity Uplifts
